

Department of Psychology

Professor/ Senior Lecturer/ Lecturer in Cognitive Neuroscience

Ref: 240

Lecturer Grade A: £24,352 - £27,929 pa,
Lecturer Grade B: £28,829 - £41,294 pa,
Senior Lecturer: £38,685 - £47,262 pa,
Professorial Minimum: £44,818 pa

Applications are invited for two positions in cognitive neuroscience whose research will make extensive use of the fMRI facility in the newly-established Clinical Imaging Sciences Centre at the University, a joint venture between the Brighton and Sussex Medical School and the School of Life Sciences. It is expected that the facility will be fully operational by Summer 2006.

Applications for the faculty position will be welcome from those with interests in any area of cognitive neuroscience. You will be expected to take a leading role in the establishment and running of the fMRI facility, to have a strong publication record and be successful in securing external funding. The appointment may be at any level - Professorial, Senior Lecturer or Lecturer - depending on qualifications.

Research Councils UK Fellow in Cognitive Neuroscience

Ref: 241

Research Grade II: £27,929 - £41,294 pa,
Research Grade III: £35,254 - £47,262 pa

The Research Councils UK Fellowship extends for five years, at the end of which you will assume a permanent faculty position within the Department of Psychology. During the five year period, your role will be primarily one of research, although you will be expected increasingly to take on some of the duties of a member of academic faculty over this period. Applicants are welcome from those with interests in any area of cognitive neuroscience. The post is especially suitable for those who currently have external research funding. Appointment will be at either Grade II or Grade III depending on qualifications.

Informal enquiries for any of the positions can be made to the Head of Department, Dr Rod Bond, email: R.Bond@sussex.ac.uk; tel: (01273) 678623.

Closing date: 2 December 2005
